

Returnable Container Schedule

Ideal provides products in returnable containers for customer's temporary storage. The applicable deposit and service fee will be billed at time of purchase with the deposit only being refunded on return of container(s) to Ideal's facilities. The service fee is non refundable and is intended to partially offset the transporting, cleaning, reclamation and waste disposal associated with handling returnable containers. Should a container not be returned within 90 days of purchase, an invoice will be issued for the replacement value minus the deposit that has been paid. The following schedule will apply:

Empty containers will be picked-up by Ideal's trucks at Ideal's expense. Freight is at customer's expense when returned via common carrier. All containers returned must meet the legal definition of empty as defined in EPA regulations, 40 CFR 261.7 and must be prepared for transportation as required by DOT regulations, 49 CFR 173.29. EPA says a container is empty if all product/waste has been removed using practices commonly employed to remove materials from that type of container. DOT says that all openings on the empty container must be closed and that all markings and labels must be in place as if the drum were full of its original contents.
